This Month's Spotlights

Author's Studio

Please join us on November 21, 2020 at 3:00 pm EST for our second Author Studio. We will be hosting girl Gaia, who has written for online resource guides such as the submissive guide, and has her own column, 50 Shades of Kink, in the National Leather Associations Link Magazine. The first studio with Toni Solenne was such a huge success. Thank you, Toni, for coming and sharing time with us. If you're an author/writer/artist and would like to be featured, please reach out. Our goal is to host someone each month.

Leaving Legacies Fund

We are pleased to announce the Carter Johnson Library and Collections and Woman of Drummer's Leather Quill Writing Project as the first recipients of our Leaving Legacies Fund. Both organizations have done so much to collect and preserve our Leatherwomen/girl histories. We thank you.

It is RCgoL's goal in the future to partner with the Carter/Johnson Library to provide scholarships for fellows of their Scholar's Program, and with the Woman of Drummer Leather Quill Writing Project to provide scholarships for individuals who wish to go through the program but financially cannot afford to do so. We are always looking to partner with other groups/organizations that collect and preserve our history. If interested, please reach out to our PR Director.

We Are One

In October, River City girls of Leather was the proud recipients of a donation from Onyx Pearls Southern Leather. In keeping with Onyx's tradition of giving back, and with our mission of helping the community, we've adopted two families to feed for Thanksgiving. Thank you, Onyx Pearls Southern Leather, for your generous donation. Without it, we would not have been able to do so.

FLAME Conference

RCgoL is a silver level sponsor of the FLAME Conference. Conference information can be found here
